OXFORD HIGH SCHOOL

RAVELIN'S

A RAINBOW OF MEMORIES TO CHERISH

'83

Foreword

The Class of 1983 will soon be leaving the halls of OHS behind them. Through the years Oxford High has helped us to grow and has molded us into the individuals we are today and the individuals we shall become tomorrow. Each member of the Class of '83' has their own personal and special memories of their years at school to remain with them forever, unforgettable moments, close friends, and a striving attitude for the future.

This is our attempt to preserve a spectrum of moments to be cherished by some and remembered by all.

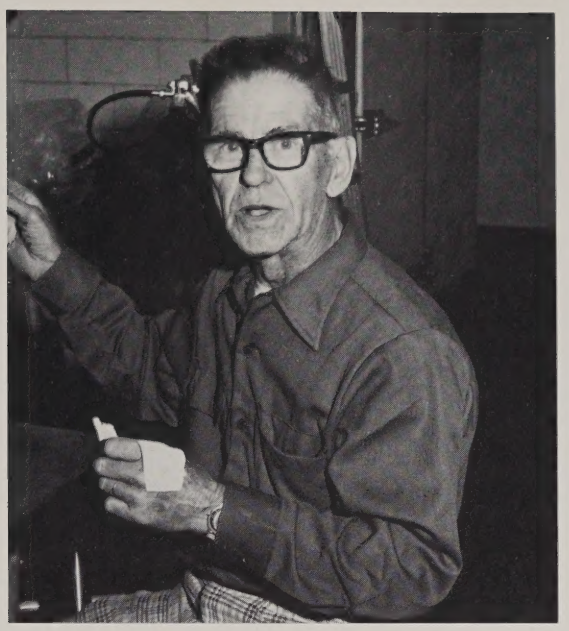
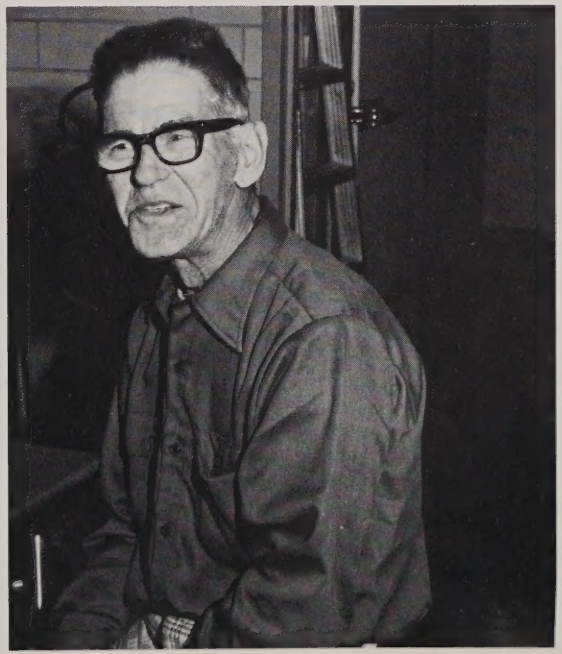
We, the Class of 1983, dedicate this year's Ravelin's to Mr. Edmond Paquette.

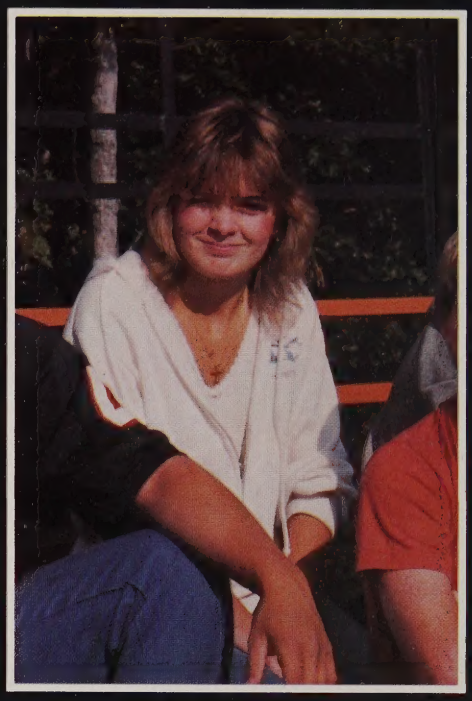
Dedication



Over the years he has served the Oxford school system faithfully and has willingly dedicated his time to his occupation. We honor Mr. Paquette to show our deeply felt gratitude and appreciation for his service.

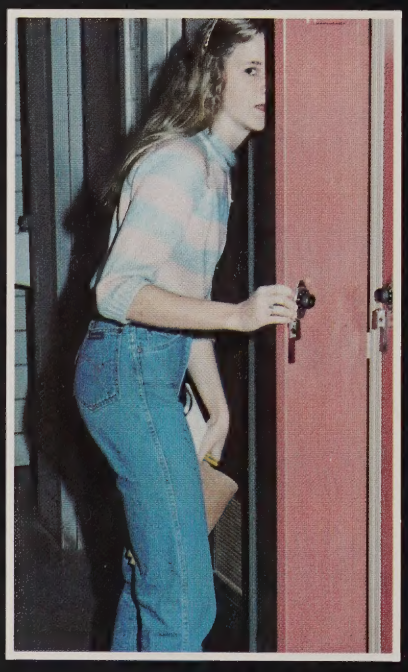


I said get off!



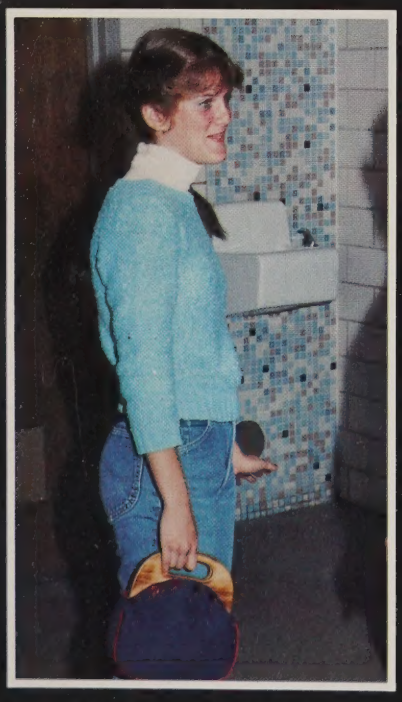
I'm getting paid for this.

Flash those pearly whites (with a little bit of silver)!



Peek-a-boo!

You mean you can eat this?



You've got to be kidding!

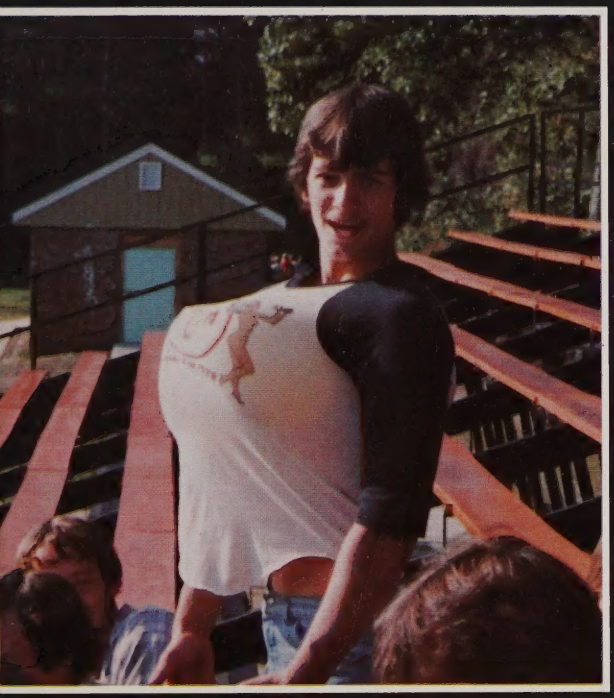
Grrr!

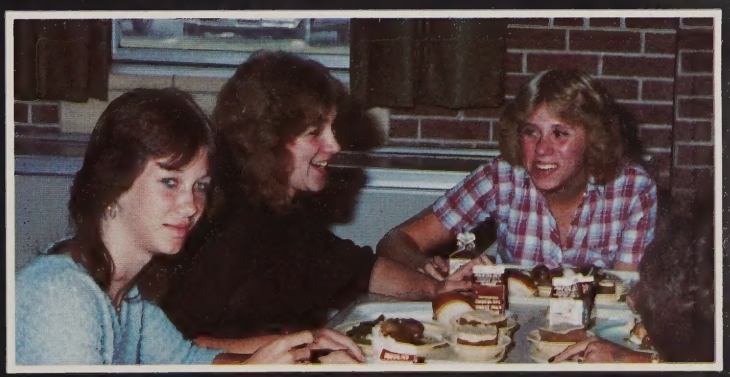
Let's be reasonable!

It's like choosing between the guillotine and the electric chair.



Oooh Baby!

Paying attention was never one of our strong points.



Hi there, Sexy!

Don't get smart!

Hurry up and take the picture.

Long ago is not so far away,
stirred by a keepsake,
from days that used to be.

Long ago is not so far away,
span both years and miles,
right now,
complete with love and laughter,

— Virginia Blanch Moore
